

Frederik G. H. Meijer to address luncheon

Businessman Frederik G. H. Meijer will be the speaker for the 25th annual American Ideals Luncheon. Twenty-two persons who became naturalized American citizens this year will be honored at the luncheon, set for 12:15 p.m. Thursday at the Masonic Temple.

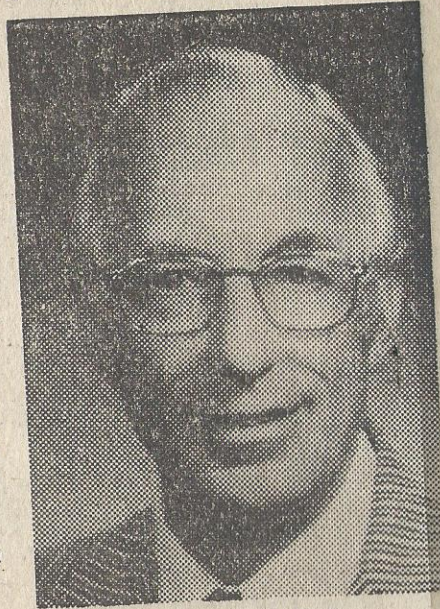

Meijer, 56, is chairman of the board of Meijer, Inc. He has been engaged in some phase of business since age 8 when he started peddling corn for his father. The Meijer corporation now owns 25 stores throughout Michigan.

In addition to his duties at Meijer, Inc., the businessman serves on the board of Michigan National Bank, the board and executive committee of Emergency Medical Services of West Michigan Comprehensive Health, is a member of the Rotary Club and serves on Gov. William Milliken's Committee on Financial Institutions.

Meijer and his family reside in Grand Rapids.

A highlight of the annual luncheon, which is sponsored by the Muskegon Rotary Club and Women's Division of Muskegon Area Chamber of Commerce, will be the presentation of a flag that has flown over the White House to one of the new citizens.
