

Horton Eminent 4-18-79

Plans Proceed For Women's Division Dance

The Women's Division of the Muskegon Area Chamber of Commerce reminds residents that the reservations deadline is approaching for its annual spring dance.

Saturday, April 28, at the Muskegon Elks Lodge and is to feature a prime rib dinner and dancing to music provided by the Tony Piper Orchestra.

The gathering is to be

The theme of the party is "April In Paris," and setting it forth, in addition to the decor, will be three Mona Shores students attired as can-can dancers.

They are Mary and Debbie Lee, the daughters of Mr. Lee, the daughters of Mr. Lee, the daughters of Mr. Lee, and Mrs. David Lee, of 4880 Greenfield St., and Jackie Ford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford, of 1810 Antisdale Drive.

It will be the trio's job to circulate among the guests, selling inflated balloons which will contain either thank you notes or receipts for door prizes.

The lasses even may do a few dance steps, thanks to some special training they'll receive soon from a Mona Shores teacher who also is a choreographer.

Further ticket information and table reservations for parties of eight or more are available by calling 726-5128.

